OUR PLACE WILL CLOSE UP

As soon as we dispose of balance of goods. With the small stock we have left and the sweeping reductions we have made last two days, it will not be many days before the last article will sell out.

We quote no prices today, because the articles we have now are by far in most cases one or two of each and at the ridiculously low prices offered there would be hundreds of people calling for the same article when one or two only can have same.

Call at once and price the goods.

DISCHARGE ORDER TO BE ENFORCED.

Taft Directs That Proceedings be Continued.

President Had Heard Arguments for Re-Hearing.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The War Department issued the following statement today concerning the negro troops ordered dismissed at Fort Reno:

"In the matter of the order discharging the enlisted men of three companies of the Twenty-fifth infantry, issued by the President, application was presented to the Secretary of War by a number of persons of standing, asking for a re-hearing by the President, on the ground on which the action was taken. Secretary telegraphed the President of the application and delayed the proceedings in the discharge until the President could indicate his wishes. The Secretary was meantime called out of town. No answer was received from the President. The Secretary, on his return, did not feel justified in further delaying the execution of the order of discharging, especially in view of the fact that the Secretary then learned that the President had fully and exhaustively considered the argument against the order of the persons who now applied for a re-hearing. Accordingly the Secretary directed yesterday, Tuesday, that the proceedings for discharge be continued without delay."

Later in the day Secretary Taft received the despatch from President Roosevelt, and issued the following additional statement:

A telegram was received from the President at 11 o'clock today, after the previous statement was given out at the War Department, in which he declines to suspend the discharge unless there are new facts of such importance as to warrant cabling him. He states that the action was taken after due deliberation, and that the only matter to which he can pay heed is the presentation of facts showing the official reports to be in whole or in part untrue, or clearly exculpating some individual. If any such facts later appear he can act as he deems advisable, but thus far nothing has been introduced to warrant the suspension of the order, and he directs that it be executed.

Secretary Taft says that immediate steps will be taken to recruit colored soldiers to replace the men discharged. The members of the three companies who were on furlough at the time of the Brownsville affair, and those members who are to be tried by court-martial, will not be mustered out. It was authoritatively stated today that the matter of the dismissal of the troops has not been brought to the attention of the President by the White House officials since he left Washington. None of the protests have been received at the White House, but have gone to the War Department.

The investigation of the conduct of negro troops of companies B, C and D, twenty-fifth infantry, as reported upon by Major Blackson, inspector-generals department, Lieutenant Colonel Lovering, Fourth infantry, acting inspector general, and Brigadier Garlington, inspector general of the army, was made public at the War Department today in a volume entitled "The Affray at Brownsville, Tex."

Major Blackson declares that the affair was premeditated, and both he and General Garlington exonerate the officers from blame. General Garlington says it was evident from the first that the three companies had entered into a compact to give no information about the affair. Secretary Taft said today that no steps will be taken to make a further investigation of the conduct of the officers.

PONCE WELCOMES THE PRESIDENT.

Great Crowd Gathers to Greet Chief Executive.

Entire Population of San Juan Joins in Demonstration.

PONCE, Porto Rico, Nov. 21.—Battleship Louisiana, with President Roosevelt and his party on board, arrived here this morning. The city was crowded with visitors from the country, all eager to see the Chief Executive, and never in the history of the island have such throngs been assembled in honor of an official guest.

The children of the city played a large part in the welcome to the President and showered him with bright and fragrant flowers several times during his brief visit, as opportunities presented themselves when he passed through the streets.

The city was profusely decorated in honor of the President, the American flag being conspicuous at every point, although here and there Spanish flags were displayed. The Spanish colors, in every instance, however, were in a secondary place.

The President was greeted on board the battleship by Governor Winthrop, who extended a welcome to the island. The President at once came ashore and was greeted at the [illegible] by Mayor Oppenheimer of Ponce and a delegation of prominent officials and citizens. The President expressed his pleasure in arriving here and said he anticipated an enjoyable visit in Porto Rico.

As the President stepped ashore the crowd cheered him, crying "Viva, El Presidente." The President responded to the crowd by bowing and he showed marked interest in the surroundings and the reception.

When the greetings were over the President, accompanied by Governor Winthrop, was driven to the city hall in an automobile. Mrs. Winthrop and Mrs. Roosevelt followed in another machine. Ropes were stretched along the sides of the streets to keep the crowds from overflowing on the roadways. The roofs and windows along the route were packed with spectators. As the President passed along, flowers were showered upon him by groups of little girls, who also threw bouquets to Mrs. Roosevelt. The President frequently arose in the automobile and bowed in all directions to the people, who were wildly acclaiming him.

At the city hall an address of welcome was read to the President. He delivered his reply from the balcony of the building, addressing the largest crowd that had ever assembled in Ponce. The President said in part:

"I shall continue to use every effort to secure citizenship for Porto Rico. I am confident this will come in the end, and all that I can personally do to hasten that day I will do. My efforts will be unceasing to help you along the path of true self-government, which must have for its basis a union of order, liberty, justice and honor."

In conclusion, the President said: "I salute you from my heart as fellow citizens." The reference to the citizenship of the islanders brought out enthusiastic applause from the people.

Before leaving Ponce the President was driven to the Roosevelt High School. Here several hundred school children had been assembled and sang "America" as the President drove up. The cornerstone of this school was laid in April, 1903, by the President's daughter, now Mrs. Longworth. The President was greatly pleased with his reception at the school and made a short address, in which he emphasized the benefits accruing from educating the children in American principles and American institutions. He was showered with flowers by the children as he drove away. Mrs. Roosevelt was presented with a beautiful piece of embroidered work, the handiwork of the girls of the Industrial School, before she left the city.

The Presidential party left Ponce at 10:30, the time set by the schedule, for the run to San Juan over the famous military road. Eleven automobiles were required to convey the entire party. Lawrence H. Grahame, commissioner of the interior, was in charge of the trip, and the arrangements worked out perfectly.

Stops of three minutes each were made at Juana, Diaz, Coamo and Aibonito. At each place the President was welcomed by the local mayor, and spoke briefly from his automobile. His remarks were practically the same as the speech in Ponce.

Along the route banners were extended bearing inscriptions reading: "The whole country asks for self-government. We want to be American citizens." In Juana, Diaz, Coamo and Aibonito the demonstrations were similar to those in Ponce, but, of course, on a smaller scale. Everywhere the whole population turned out to see the President.

Cayey was reached at 1:30 p. m. Here the party had luncheon in the barracks, being informally entertained by Major Griffith, commanding the post. The journey was continued at 2:15. Mr. Roosevelt expressed himself as astonished by the wonderful development of the country, which has been converted into an immense tobacco plantation.

At Caguas, the principal town on the military road, the reception equalled that at Ponce. Mrs. Roosevelt was showered with flowers and received several gifts that were presented by the city. Mr. Roosevelt here delivered a long speech on the question of citizenship, which was the theme of all his addresses.

At Rio Piedras and other towns he was heartily received and he spoke so often that the party fell behind the schedule time. He became more and more enthusiastic as he approached San Juan. He stopped at the Porto Rico Normal School, where the students noisily greeted him. He spoke to them in a jocular strain at first. He said that their yell of greeting indicated that they had a baseball team. Someone shouted that they had and Mr. Roosevelt added that the yell sounded as if somebody had made a home run. He then proceeded to dwell upon the serious phase of life.

San Juan fairly outdid itself in the reception it gave the President. Never before, even during the time of Spanish rule, was such a spectacle witnessed. The entire population was wildly elated and the city was one huge mass of glowing colors. Where the road enters San Juan, an arch had been constructed representing the gates of the city. Here Mayor Todd handed over the keys of the town to the President. Then the Porto Rico regiment took up a position in front of the President's automobile and Lieutenant Colonel Bailey and his staff acted as escort, riding on all sides of the car. As the party proceeded through the city the cheering was deafening. After the palace was reached the President reviewed the troops and received a number of delegations. A public reception was given at the palace tonight.

At every kilometer along the military road a policeman was stationed and the officers performed their duties in an efficient manner. The President praised Chief of Police Hamill for the efficiency of his men.

HONOR MEMORY OF SCHURZ.

Notable Men Pay Warm Tribute to the Great German-American.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—A memorial meeting in honor of Carl Schurz, the first public move to further the permanent memorial as planned by a representative committee organized soon after the death of the distinguished German-American citizen, was held at Carnegie hall tonight. The attendance was large and eulogistic sentiments were expressed by a notable list of speakers, which included former President Cleveland and Secretary Bonaparte.

THE LATE CARL SCHURZ.

In the audience were representatives of many organizations with which Mr. Schurz had been identified, and of others with whose objects he was in sympathy. Richard Watson Gilder read a poem written for the occasion. Chairman Choate spoke briefly and was followed by former President Cleveland. Mr. Cleveland paid a personal testimonial to Mr. Schurz as a man.

President Charles W. Eliot of Harvard University then paid his tribute to Schurz's memory, in which he treated him as an orator and a man of letters. Professor Eugene Kuhnemann of the University of Breslau, now lecturing at Harvard University, spoke in German, treating of Mr. Schurz from the German point of view and of the significance of his career as a bond between the two peoples.

Following him came Charles J. Bonaparte, who talked of Mr. Schurz in connection with the great work of civil service reform. Mr. Schurz was elected vice president of the National Civil Service Reform League at its organization, with George William Curtis as president, and succeeded the latter in 1893, retaining the office until 189[illegible].

Professor Hermann Schumacher of the University of Bonn, who is now lecturing at Columbia University, was another speaker, as was also Booker T. Washington of Tuskegee Institute. The latter's talk was upon Mr. Schurz's active work in connection with the advancement of the negro race. Mr. Schurz was designated by President Johnson as a special commissioner to make a study of the conditions in the South after the war, particularly with reference to the negroes.

After these speeches the chairman explained the plan of the committee for raising a fund to provide a permanent testimonial to Mr. Schurz.

SERVICE FOR THE CONNECTICUT

Thirty-Six Pieces of Silver Presented to New Battleship.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Governor Henry Roberts of Connecticut and a delegation of 250 state and city officials of Connecticut, today presented a silver service of 36 pieces to the new battleship Connecticut in the New York navy yard. At the same time Rev. George T. Egbert of Norwalk, Conn., presented to the ship a stand of colors as the gift of the school children of Norwalk.

Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte, responding to Governor Roberts's speech and to an allusion to the progress of international arbitration, placed his hand upon one of the Connecticut's 12-inch guns and said: "This has been found to be the best possible advocate of arbitration." The time is not yet ripe, the Secretary said, for absolute arbitration.

BISHOP FOWLER ILL.

Nervous Breakdown Said to be Cause of the Sickness.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Bishop Charles H. Fowler of the Methodist Episcopal Church has been ill for the last five weeks, and although he is not yet able to leave his home, Mrs. Fowler says that his physicians are sure that it will not be long before he will be almost entirely recovered. Nervous breakdown is said to be the nature of the illness. It is improbable, it was said, that Bishop Fowler will attempt to attend to any of his duties until spring.

GIFTS FOR COLLEGE WORK.

Will of Professor James M. Hoppin of Yale Art School.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 21.—By the will of the late Professor James M. Hoppin, of the Yale Art School, Yale receives a gift of [illegible] for the establishment of a professorship of architecture in the art school. The gift is first subject, however, to the life use of his son, Benjamin Hoppin.

Dartmouth College, from which Professor Hoppin received a degree of LL. D., in [illegible], receives $500, Knox College, Galesborough, Ill., $500, and the Yale Alumni Association $1,000. The Yale foreign mission in China is given $5,000. Professor Hoppin's valuable art library is given to the Yale Art School.

CASTELLANE'S DEBTS DISCUSSED

Creditors State in Court That He Spent Twice His Income.

PARIS, Nov. 21.—At the continuation today of the Castellane creditors' suit it was stated that during the first five years of the count's marriage 41,-000,000 francs were spent. The income was only 20,000,000, leaving debts of 21,000,000 francs. There remained from the funds for conducting the menage thereafter, only 30,000 francs a month to pay the whole earlier indebtedness.

It was stated that Mr. Zeigler, who managed the couple's financial affairs, had Mme. Gould's own ratification of the expenses incurred by Count Castellane. Mr. Zeigler withdrew in 1903. Thereafter the count sought other money lenders. The countess was unable to speak French fluently, and consequently the count was obliged to run the household, even to the laundry lists.

TO WORK IN LAUNDRIES.

First Attempt to Exclude Chinamen From Landing in Great Britain.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The first attempt to exclude Chinese from landing in Great Britain is now occupying the attention of the immigration board. Thirty-two Chinamen from Hong Kong, who arrived at Gravesend Monday on their way to Liverpool, where they had been engaged to work in laundries, were refused permission to land, the immigration officers contending that the Chinamen lacked means to support themselves. The case was appealed to the immigration board, and after consideration decision was postponed, the chairman of the board pointing out that this was the first case under the law (the new aliens act) and one of great importance.

PEARY RESUMES HIS VOYAGE.

Leaves St. George's Bay with Enough Coal to Reach Port au Basque.

ST. GEORGE'S BAY, Newfoundland, Nov. 21.—The Peary Arctic steamer Roosevelt sailed at 6 o'clock tonight for Port au Basque, where she will coal and proceed to Sydney, N. S.

The Roosevelt, with the exploring expedition on board, arrived here Saturday short of fuel. The vessel took on eight tons of coal, all she could obtain, but not sufficient to carry her across the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Since loading, the Roosevelt has awaited favorable weather to proceed. The steamer will touch at Port au Basque, only to renew her coal supply.

MINES WORKED TO CAPACITY.

Record-Breaking Season in Nova Scotia Coal Industry.

NORTH SYDNEY, Nova Scotia, Nov. 21.—The present season has been a record-breaking one for the coal-mining industry of this province. Just now the mines of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Company are being worked to their fullest capacity, as a result of the dispute between the Dominion Coal Company and the Dominion Iron & Steel Company, whereby the contract by which the former concern furnished coal to the steel corporation has been suspended. The steel company is buying much of its fuel here, and there are daily sailings from the local wharves of steamers and barges. In addition about 25 carloads of coke and a similar quantity of coal are sent off daily.

FOR SPECIAL JURY PANEL.

Application Made to Judge O'Sullivan in the Thaw Case.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Application was made to Judge O'Sullivan today for a special panel of 150 talesmen from which to select a jury for the trial of Harry K. Thaw December 3. Assistant District Attorney Garvan said that the case had received a great deal of newspaper notoriety, and that the district attorney believed the special panel asked for would be necessary to expedite the election of a jury.

Clifford W. Hartridge, who appeared for Thaw in opposing the motion, said he had seen fit on one occasion to ask that the case, because of the intricate questions involved, be transferred to the supreme court, and he feared that he would not be able to get the case ready by December 3.

Judge O'Sullivan took the matter under advisement.

MIDDLETOWN.

[Regular correspondence of the News.]

An attendance which filled the Holy Cross guild house full nearly to its full capacity was present last evening. About 300 partook of the New England supper served by the ladies, and from which more than $40 was realized. The evening exercises were in celebration of the first anniversary of the guild house, the dedication being held one year ago. Mr. Harold Jeter of Newport rendered a musical program during the supper and throughout the evening.

The exercises began with a piano selection by Mr. Jeter, followed by a duet, "Springtime," by Mrs. Philip Wilbor and Mrs. Pascal Conley, which was encored with "Juanita." Mr. Jeter rendered another piano selection and Rev. Allen Jacobs made brief remarks which covered a good deal of ground. After another piano selection by Mr. Jeter Rev. Mr. Jacobs introduced Rev. William Preasey of Ashaway, R. I., whose answers to some of Mr. Heeney's friendly and witty criticisms created much mirth.

Rev. Cyril Heeney of St. George's church of Newport, who is about to go to Paris, Canada, was then introduced. Mr. Heeney spoke of his native home and country, where he is so soon to go, its customs and characteristics, and climate. His remarks took in a wide range, and though the talk was short it was much to the point. In a jovial way he spoke of his allegiance to Canada and his great friendship for America and his pleasant stay here.

About 150 were present, including a number from Newport and Portsmouth. At the close of the entertainment Mr. Jeter played popular and patriotic airs to which a large number joined in singing.

Fourteen members attended the meeting of the Paradise Club yesterday with Mrs. Howard G. Peckham. After the reading of current events, Miss Mattie Peckham read an interesting account of the settling of the colony of Rhode Island, followed by readings from "Miss Tantasy's Mission." There will be no meeting next week but December 5 the club will meet with Mrs. Restcom S. Peckham, M. S.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sisson and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carr have returned from a few days' visit out of town.

Mrs. J. McCartney of Jersey City, N. J., is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Manchester.

Mr. John H. Manchester left this morning for Norton, Mass., where he will remain for a few days. His granddaughter, Miss Mary E. Manchester, accompanied him.

About 100 persons attended the dance given by the members of the Paradise Athletic Club at the town hall last evening, and about $25 was taken for tickets at the door. The Harry K. Howard orchestra furnished music for dancing.

Mrs. Elmer Peckham is guest of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Hart this week.

Mrs. Ida Calvert will entertain a small party at whist this evening.

Rev. Lattu Griswold has been confined to St. George's School by a severe cold during the past week.

The topic for the devotional meeting of the Epworth League tomorrow evening will be "Temperance. The Use of Strong Drink." The subject will be presented by a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, who will be assisted by other "White Ribboners."

PERSONALS.

....The French senate, by 134 to 95 votes, has decided in favor of transferring the ashes of Emile Zola to the Pantheon.

....Vice President Fairbanks has gone to Tampa, Fla., where he will deliver an address at the opening of the Florida state fair Thursday.

....Postmaster General Lemieux of Canada says it is his intention to give British newspapers and periodicals a preference in the Canadian mails and to discriminate against sensational newspapers of the United States.

....The Westminster Gazette urges the government to select a man of supreme ability for British ambassador at Washington. The paper declares that Great Britain's former influence and prestige at Washington have been usurped by the German embassy, adding that the relations between the President and the German ambassador are of the most intimate character, and that Mr. Roosevelt is in closer and more confidential communication with Emperor William than any other ruler or any statesman in Europe.

AN INVISIBLE DAY.

[Elizabeth C. Gebhard, in Gunter's.]

If into the strife and the struggle of life,
The storm and the stress of the way,
Somewhere 'twixt the set and the rise of the sun,
There could come an invisible day—

A day without name, or position, or date,
But continued to exist at his need,
A day when the soul drew its anchors from earth,
And rose o'er the height of its creed—

Then gladly the burdened might lay off their loads,
The weary might gather sweet strength,
And hours of pain would sink far out of sight,
In a day of invisible length.

A thought and a crime which clasped hands over sight
Would be driven a whole day apart,
And heavenly light o'er which angels stand guard
Would sweep o'er the tempted, tried heart.

A day of ideals! a day of fresh hopes!
Like a beacon, which marks from its height,
Far out o'er the waves and the billows of life,
A pathway of glistening light.

The test of a life on this pivotal day.
The height of its fame or its fate,
Would lie in the hands of the Angel of Light,
Who guards the invisible gate.

Oh! could we but have in the problems of life,
The boon of a day just between,
When deeds that were noble, and acts that were small,
Would often change places, I ween.

A STUDY OF TRAINED BEASTS.

"Behind the Scenes With Wild Animals," a Unique Book, Written by Ellen Velvin.

Ellen Velvin has written a unique book, treating of wild animals in captivity. She has had unusual opportunities in studying the animals, for she has spent long periods behind the scenes at the principal shows, besides having been a frequent visitor to zoological gardens in both Europe and America, while she has been on terms of familiar acquaintance with keepers and trainers, being a great favorite of the show people. In preparing this book she has had the assistance of William T. Hornaday, director of the New York Zoological Park, and other zoologists. The volume gives expert information, on the actions, care, training and feeding of wild animals. It is exceedingly interesting, with its thrilling incidents and facts regarding the life of the trainers and keepers.

Miss Velvin sheds new light on the individuality of wild animals, by saying that no two of the same kind are alike either in temperament or disposition, and gives many illustrations proving this fact. The author has much to say about the peril which surrounds the trainers, narrow escapes being the common experience, of great numbers of which the public never hears. At every performance and at every rehearsal the trainer takes his life in his hands. Star performers last only a few years, as there usually comes a day when their control over their wild pupils is at an end, and if not killed outright they are maimed for life. The training of the leather is an important art, and hardly less difficult than that of the wild animals. Above all things, a man or woman must have presence of mind in a critical time, and be equal to any emergency that may arise. Of course the trainer must possess courage, firmness and patience. In the beginning they receive many injuries, often of a serious nature, but the author says that these experiences are good for the trainer, making him alert and teaching him self-control, and in addition give him a personal knowledge of wild animals which otherwise he would never have acquired.

Miss Velvin describes the difficulties of photographing wild animals, the perils of the runaway, the young of the wild, the inside life of shows, traveling with animals, their viciousness and treachery, and tells of curious facts in animal land, ending with her experience in obtaining information.

The author refers many times to President Roosevelt, quoting him often as an authority, and dedicates the book to him, "in appreciation of his love of truth, and love of nature."

There are many illustrations, including trainers photographed with their animals, and the book is issued by Moffat, Yard & Co.

THE LIQUOR LICENSES.

Not much has been said this year concerning the matter of granting liquor licenses, which is to come before the Police Commission tomorrow evening, but there can be no doubt as to the attitude of the public towards the question. Last fall the action of the Commission in materially reducing the number of licenses granted met the general approval of the citizens, and there is not the slightest reason to think that there has been any change in public opinion on this important subject since that time. Any increase in the number of liquor licenses, above the number now in force, would certainly not meet with favor, and a still further reduction would doubtless be very generally approved. Public sentiment is unquestionably with the Commission in the endeavor to restrict the liquor traffic in this city.

THE TUBERCULOSIS FIGHT IN RHODE ISLAND.

Rhode Island has taken a position in the forefront of the forces which are battling tuberculosis in this country. For several years now there has been an increasing interest manifest in this state in efforts for the prevention of the spread of this disease and the cure of such cases as have not become hopeless. Even when the movement was first started progress was rapid and in a short time comparatively several sanatoriums in favorable sections of the state were opened for the treatment of tuberculous patients. Philanthropists and physicians first took up the work and then legislators were interested, so that appropriations were made for state assistance and establishments and laws were passed to help the project, until finally the people were aroused to feel the importance of the undertaking and contribute to its support.

All this effort and expenditure of time and money resulted in making Rhode Island an object lesson for other states and giving it a record equalled by few along this line. Already through the influence of public and private institutions for the treatment of those afflicted with tuberculosis hundreds of men and women have been able to counteract the inroads of the disease, and then have found it possible to go to their own homes and lead normal, healthy lives so long as they followed the instructions they had received concerning food, exercise and open-air living. Thus relief has been brought to many anxious hearts and numbers have been saved from an apparently hopeless condition, for prolonged life and usefulness. So fully has modern treatment of this disease been justified in the experience gained during the past few years.

Still more important and extensive efforts are to be made with the hope and expectation of stamping out tuberculosis to an even greater degree, by oversight and treatment of workers in the mills and factories of the state. In this new work those who have undertaken it have met the hearty approval and earnest co-operation of the men in charge of the large industrial plants, and with this needed assistance there is reason to believe that this supervisory scheme will result in greatly reducing, if not entirely eliminating, this disease from the mills and factories of the state.

Newport has been among the foremost cities and towns of the state in supporting, and even in inaugurating and directing the efforts of these last few years against the "white plague," and while we have here no large industrial establishments in which the seeds of the disease may lurk and spread contagion, yet the city may still maintain its record of hostility to the disease and energy in the attempt to eradicate it by contributions and individual efforts directed toward the support of the movement throughout the state in all its phases. Nowhere in the commonwealth has a better appreciation of the importance of this great battle against consumption been shown than here in our own city, and it is certain that the good work begun and prosecuted here will be continued until that battle is won.

TO SAVE NIAGARA FALLS.

The American Civic Association is determined that Niagara Falls shall be saved from the greed of the power supply companies. If public agitation can accomplish it. The association secured the passage by Congress last June of the Burton bill, which places the custody of Niagara Falls under the Secretary of War, thus dispossessing the state of New York. This is regarded as a great gain, but it is not enough. The Burton bill contains a clause limiting the amount of water which can be diverted from Niagara for power purposes, the limitation permitting half the amount which the engineers and the power companies had agreed to ask for.

In July Secretary Taft gave a hearing to the various interests involved in the Niagara matter and afterwards largely sustained the position of the Association, by granting permits to the power companies allowing them to use the quantity of water which they had been using, but no more. The companies have not been satisfied with this disposition of the matter, and recently renewed their fight on a new line of attack. Shut out on the American side by the provisions of the Burton bill and the firm stand of the New York State Park Reservation at Niagara, they are planning to bring in great quantities of power from Canada. Under the Burton bill a total of 160,000 horse power at first may be brought from Canada, with a possibility of 350,000 horse power later. All this would lend toward the depletion of the falls, and the ruin of the great spectacle.

The Secretary of War will give the power companies a hearing next Monday, and his office is being flooded with letters from citizens all over the country, protesting against giving the companies further concessions which will tend to deprive the falls of their beauty and scenic wonder. It is suggested that the more personal letters sent to the Secretary of War on this subject, the more likely it is that Niagara will be saved from the greed of the power developing companies.

IMPROVING ON THE RIVERS.

Many years ago, when things in Egypt had not been modernized by Lord Cromer and Thomas Cook & Son, an English traveler whose rank entitled him to the personal attentions of the Khedive observed a canal of a decidedly serpentine course, for which the perfectly level surface of the earth offered no explanation. This he sought from the Khedive, who asked in reply if the traveler ever saw a straight river. The Englishman admitted that he never did. "Then," said the Khedive, "do you expect man to be wiser than the Almighty?"

This reverent indisposition to improve on the works of nature does not characterize the Lakes to the Gulf Deep Waterway Association. Reverence for anything does not characterize Americans, but as the government has spent many million dollars on the Mississippi river in efforts to improve upon nature we had supposed that the water advocates would be content with a continuation of the same policy: that they would only ask for more millions to be spent in improving the Father of Waters till it should assume a closer resemblance to a ditch scooped out by man for the purpose of floating his merchandise. But the scheme is more ambitious than this. We infer from the demand for a canal from the Great Lakes to the Gulf that the Mississippi river improved is not enough, but that all the work already done on it is to be abandoned, if Congress can be persuaded, and about 1,000 miles of canal dug along its side.

Never mind what it would cost; consideration of details like that will come later. At present it is important to settle on principles, and the fundamental principle here is that the noble Mississippi is not well fitted to work for its living. Perhaps it is a little too much like the noble red man in this respect. So the Mississippi is to be left for purposes of irrigation and commerce must have a canal alongside. We have a good deal of a canal job on hand now. Perhaps the deep waterway people might wait till we finish at Panama.

BAD DRY DOCKS.

The New York Tribune says the stoppage of work on dry dock 1, at the Brooklyn navy yard, is causing much uneasiness among the officials and mechanics on duty at the yard. Practically no work has been done on the dock since August. Alarm is felt by the men principally because dry dock 1, the only one which will take the largest ships, has been out of order for some time. When it is closed, as it soon will be, there will be only one dock in the yard fit for use. This will take only the smaller ships of the navy, which will make necessary the repairing and cleaning of the larger ships at the League Island, Boston or Portsmouth yards.

The same trouble, unsuitable soil, was experienced at Port Royal, S. C., where the attempt to construct a dry dock on low, marshy ground proved a total failure. The Port Royal dry dock has been abandoned. It is safe to say that on the shores of Narragansett bay may be found soil sufficiently solid for dry docks, capable of taking the heaviest battleship ever built, or likely to be built, and with a clean channel from the sea more than 40 feet.

It is none too early to press the agitation for biennial elections in Rhode Island, as it will take at least two years to secure a constitutional amendment providing for the change. If the legislature at its next session approves the plan another legislature must endorse it, so that the amendment cannot come before the people for two years, and the new arrangement cannot go into effect until 1909. The proposed change is one which will undoubtedly meet with opposition from the office holders, but this does not, in itself, make it any the less desirable.

James Bryce would undoubtedly make an acceptable ambassador from England to this country. Other names, besides that of Mr. Bryce, are also mentioned, but evidently Washington does not know anything and is merely guessing about Sir Mortimer Durand's successor.

It is looking quite a way ahead, but it is said with considerable positiveness that President Roosevelt will succeed to Thomas C. Platt's seat in the United States Senate in 1908, upon the President's retirement from his present office.

No one can complain that the Representative Council will not be representative.

A heavy fog is not quite like November weather.

THE DECEMBER MAGAZINES.

The North American Review for November 16 contains a timely list of topics. Leading the table of contents is a generous instalment of chapters from the Autobiography of Mark Twain. Lucien Hugh Alexander, a prominent member of the Philadelphia bar, contributes a comprehensive article entitled "James Wilson, Patriot, and the Wilson Doctrine." In "The New Spirit in India" Sir Henry Cotton, an authority on England's Oriental empire, discusses the new spirit of nationality that has arisen in India under English dominion. Edward Porritt contributes an interesting article on "Political Corruption in England." "The Poems of Trumbull Stickney," by William Vaughn Moody, is an appreciation of that little known poet, who, though he died young, yet left a monument of beautiful verse and a valuable addition to American literature. In "An Unexpected French War-Cry Against Germany," Karl Blind takes to task the celebrated French publicist, Yves Guyot, for taking advantage of the present entente cordiale between England and France in fostering a bellicose spirit against Germany.

Dr. Josiah Strong, in "Our Industrial Juggernaut," marshals some telling facts and figures to show the vast number of accidents, fatal and otherwise, caused by the industrial plants of the country. In "The Future in Cuba" William Inglis, who served as war correspondent during the recent insurrection, sketches the condition and prospects of Cuba today. Asaad Kalagi Karam, a learned Moroccan, presents the Moroccan question up to date in an article entitled "The Moroccan Question as Seen from Morocco." In the literary department Charles Dickens: A Critical Study," by G. K. Chesterton, is reviewed by Oliver Howard Dunbar; "The Sands of Pleasure," by Filson Young, by Frederic Taber Cooper; Brander Matthews' "Kate: A Comedy in Four Acts," by Clayton Hamilton; and Mary Moore's "The Breath of the Banners," by Louise Collier Willcox. The department of World Politics contains communications from Berlin and Washington.

The New England Magazine opens with "The Loyalty of the Senate," by David S. Barry, the second and last instalment of Mr. Barry's article in which he takes the affirmative side of the question "Is the Senate loyal?" which so many of the sensational magazines have answered in the negative. "Nineteenth Century Boston Journalism," by Edward H. Clement. Mr. Clement, who has been for almost a quarter of a century the editor of the Boston Transcript, recalls some of the great newspaper men of the sixties. "Ballads of Old Boston, The Ox" is by M. A. DeWolfe Howe, commemorating the Boston celebration of the French Revolution, January 24, 1799. "Who Runs Massachusetts?" is treated by R. L. Bridgman. In "Massachusetts Bench and Bar," by Stephen O. Sherman and Weston F. Hutchins, humorous anecdotes are given concerning Thomas Ilsley, "The Prince of Legal Wits;" Melvin O. Adams, Judge C. P. Thompson and others.

"The Seven Adventures of John Henry," (f-H), by Grace L. Hewitt, tells of John Henry, a very real and lovable small boy, who goes on an errand for Miss McTwaddle, a spinster of uncertain age who lives near him, and after encountering various difficulties receives a reward which he considers wholly out of proportion to his deserts. "Concerning Home and School," by Sarah Louise Arnold, is the first of an interesting series of articles by Miss Arnold, the Dean of Simmons College, concerning affairs in the educational world, and the problems which beset teachers and parents. "Municipal Ownership in Canada," discussed by Martin E. Jensen, Halifax, Nova Scotia, is described by A. M. Payne.

NEW YORK'S GAS BILLS.

With an unpaid city lighting bill of about $9,000,000, the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity of New York will advertise for bids for lighting the city for the year beginning January 1.

The city is paying 50 per cent of its electric lighting bills pending the adjustment of a price to be charged by the companies. One gas company has not presented any bill this year for gas lighting, and probably will not present any until the constitutionality of the law reducing the price of gas to 75 cents a thousand feet has been tested in the highest court.

Rushing down a mountainside at 50 miles an hour, a fast freight on the Southern railroad was derailed at Old Fork, near Asheville, N. C., the engine and 15 cars demolished and all of the crew either killed or injured.

Ray Street Railways Pass into Hands of Consolidated.

Narrow Margin of a Central Falls Democrat—Pawtucket Republican Appointment.

The Woonsocket Street Railway Company, operating in the streets of Woonsocket; the Columbian Street Railway, operating between Woonsocket and Pascoag; the Providence & Burrillville Street Railway Company, operating between Woonsocket and Providence, and the Milford, Attleboro & Woonsocket Street Railway Company, operating between Woonsocket, Milford, Franklin and Attleboro, were transferred yesterday afternoon from the control of those companies' directors into the control of the Consolidated Railways Company of Connecticut, a corporation controlled by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, and owning and operating a large part of the street railway mileage in Connecticut. The New England Securities Company of New England, which has taken sundry Massachusetts street railways from the New Haven road recently, is a differin concern. The Woonsocket or the Ray system of street railways comprises four corporations, owning 71 miles of main line.

With only one vote for a majority against his opponent, Peter Clare, James Foy, Democrat, of Central Falls, is elected to the position of second representative from that city, the election being declared after the first semblance of a contest which has appeared in the State Returning Board this year. The result is not materially changed, for Mr. Foy was supposed to have been elected by the election officers' counts, but not by so narrow a margin, the vote as announced the morning after election day standing 1,112 to 1,094, a majority of 18 for Foy. After the count of the votes of Central Falls had been completed yesterday and the footings made up it was found that there was only one more for Foy than for his opponent, the figures being 1,119 to 1,118. The result of the count depended, it turned out, on one ballot, on which there was a division among the members of the board. This ballot had a cross in the Democratic circle in which column was Mr. Foy's name. There was a cross against the name of Mr. Clare, Mr. Foy's opponent, in the Republican column, and the division was as to whether or not there was a line drawn through Mr. Foy's name. The ballot had a faint trace, as if an attempt had been made to make a mark, but the mark was not clear. Three members to one voted to admit the ballot for Mr. Foy, Thomas J. Dorney voting against it, and one member of the board being absent. This was the deciding ballot. The microscope was not used on it, as it was on some others during the Central Falls count, and Senator Stiness maintained at one time in the discussion that it should have been used.

With Mayor Higgins absent from Pawtucket on a trip for the benefit of his health, the Republican board of aldermen, seconded by the Republican common council and with a Republican as acting mayor, appointed a deputy chief of police of that city last night, as well as a clerk of the police department, both new offices. The aldermen also elected Thomas McHugh, a former Democratic representative in the General Assembly from Pawtucket, but of recent years a Republican worker and an enemy of the Democratic party in the adjoining city, janitor of the police station, to replace James F. Jeffries, who was elected to be a permanent police patrolman. All went through smoothly, despite the protests of a few Democrats, whose words of indignation were unheeded. With Mayor Higgins out of the city the Republicans had complete control. It was expected that they would wait until next January to elect their new chief or deputy chief, as a Republican mayor will then come into power. But it is understood that Robert A. Kenyon, the mayor-elect, was not friendly toward the appointment of Charles E. Hill, the new deputy chief of police, to the office, but that his preference was Lieutenant George A. Sweet, who is in line for promotion, along with Captain Peter L. Vanaula and Sergeant Gardner.

Trouble involving the position of Elmer Butterfield, deputy superintendent of the Sockanosset School for Boys, occurred at a special meeting of the Board of State Charities and Corrections, yesterday afternoon. A question of the retirement of Mr. Butterfield was held up by a vote of four to four and will be held in abeyance until the meeting next month, when, with John J. Watson, Jr., of Jamestown, present, the one member of the board who was absent yesterday, the dispute over the official will probably be settled. The controversy over Mr. Butterfield hinges on the right of Superintendent Eastman, acting under a recent order of the board, to request the resignation of his deputy, and this in turn involves a recent investigation into charges made against Mr. Butterfield by one of the subordinates at the Boys' School. These charges, it is claimed, were made some time ago, to one of the members of the board, who requested Superintendent Eastman to look up the case. Later another member of the board was acquainted with the complaints against Mr. Butterfield, and the matter finally found its way before the entire board at one of its recent meetings.

The first step in an expected movement to bring about biennial elections in this state has been taken. Since the agitation and excitement attendant upon the recent election, it has been evident that there was a strong sentiment in favor of having these contests occur once in two years. An agitation to bring this about has been started in Massachusetts. This and Rhode Island are the only states which have annual elections, and the evident feeling on the matter is now so plain that in Rhode Island, at least, legislative action on the matter seems quite certain. In an address before the Men's Club of the Cranston Street Baptist Church in Providence Alfred Stone, a member of the architect firm of Stone & Webster, urged that the election of state and municipal officers be held once in two years instead of annually, in the cause of promoting non-partisan politics, and also urged that citizens be desirous for political office, for the simple purpose of aiding in this respect the proper conduct of the affairs of our government. He deplored the fact that men are continually being elected to office who desire the position simply for what they can get out of it, and urged the election of conscientious citizens in their place.

The 400 employes of the National India Rubber Company's Bristol factory went back to work this morning after two days idleness, having been successful in obtaining an increase of one half cent on each pair of lawn tennis shoes they make, as the result of a conference between a committee of the strikers and Agent LeBaron C. Colt. The previous rate was 4½ cents per pair on the low-cut variety of shoe and 5 cents per pair on the topped style, and the half-cent increase holds in each grade of goods. The placing of a new strip inside the inner sole of the shoes was the principal basis for the demand for an increase, and this was granted by Agent Colt, who expressed his opinion that the operatives were entitled to an increase and then agreed to the increase of half a cent requested by the strikers.

The Riverside Congregational Church has taken action on accepting a candidate to fill the pulpit, from which Rev. Thomas F. Norris recently resigned, and it is announced that Rev. Frank Louis Bristol of Condor, N. Y., will be called to fill the place. It is stated that it will be several weeks at least before the newly appointed pastor will take up his duties, as he is now supplying the pulpit of a church in New York, and in the meantime the pulpit of the Riverside church will be occupied by Rev. John Hale Larry, formerly of Providence.

The mill of the Belleville Manufacturing Company of North Kingstown was sold at auction yesterday to Joseph Charles Fletcher, for $25,000, which is a low price. Mr. Fletcher says the mill will be started up before January 1, 1907, for the manufacture of woolen goods, and that 125 hands will be employed. The Belleville Company's plant has been owned by J. P. Campbell and James R. Wilson for the past 20 years and was closed down last July. The mill is a brick structure, four stories in height, and has a dye house and all the appliances for a first-class woolen mill. It contains 27 looms and has employed from 125 to 130 hands. Fifteen tenement houses were also included in the sale of the property. The mill, which is taxed for $70,000, was built at a cost of $150,000. A cotton mill formerly stood on the site of the Belleville mill, but this was burned in 1863 and some time afterward the present structure was built by William F. Pearce for the manufacture of woolen goods.

After saving no fewer than 22 lives from drowning, James Armstrong, well known throughout this state as a life saver and surfman attached to the United States Life-Saving Corps, and at present a keeper at the Rhode Island state prison, retires voluntarily from the service owing to disability. He has received from the headquarters of the Life Saving Corps, Third District, at Quonochontaug, his honorable discharge. Rheumatism has been troubling Mr. Armstrong a good deal of late, and his physician advises him to sever his connection with the surf patrol. When not at the life saving station in the winter season, he has been a guard at the prisons.

THE WEATHER.

BOSTON, Nov. 22, 8 A. M.—Forecast for Boston and vicinity—Fair and colder tonight and Friday; light to fresh westerly winds.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The centre of the storm this morning is over the upper St. Lawrence valley, with a small secondary centre on the southeast New England coast. It has caused general rains in the Middle west and snow in the upper lake regions. Today the weather of the country is fair and generally clear except in the lake region and Northeast. Over other sections the pressure is generally high. The temperatures are somewhat lower in central and eastern districts and higher in the west. At 8 a. m. in New England it ranged between 36 and 46, at New York it was 50, Washington 58, New Orleans 48, Chicago 30, Denver 26, San Francisco 48.

BELATED NOMINATIONS.

Those Not Before Reported Bring the Total for Representative Council to 332.

The filing of nomination papers seems to have ceased yesterday, whether it was or was not the last day intended for filing, and up to the time the News went to press only one paper had been filed today. There are, however, some filed before which have not been reported and some of these follow:

For School Committee—Louis H. Sinakowski.

Representative Council.

Ward 2, two years—David A. Buckley.

Ward 3, one year—Dr. Frederick Bernicon.

Ward 3, two years—Louis Rutter.

Ward 4, one year—James H. Cronin.

Ward 4, two years—William F. Lennon, John T. Keefe.

Ward 4, two years—William F. Lennon, John O'Brien, Patrick Sullivan.

Ward 4, three years—Richard Mullen, Clarence Stanhope.

Ward 5, one year—Daniel J. Buckley.

Ward 5, two years—Edward J. O'Neill, Mortimer D. Sullivan.

Ward 5, three years—Daniel J. J. Donovan.

This brings the total nominations for the Representative Council to 332, divided as follows: First ward, 77; Second, 62; Third, 56; Fourth, 67; Fifth, 70.

This is positively the last day for making nominations, and the chances are rather against any more coming in.

A MOCK ROOSEVELT WEDDING.

Under the auspices of the Household of Ruth, No. 601, there was an entertainment in Masonic hall last night which proved interesting to a large gathering of young and old. The main feature was a comedy called the Mock Wedding of Alice Roosevelt. Miss Ida May Perry filled the part of Alice, while Mr. Lawrence Johnson took the role of Nicholas Longworth, with a long list of assistants in the various parts, from the best man and bridesmaids, through the parents of the parties, to the guests. Perhaps it should be said that M. W. Mitchell and Louise Williams filled the role of "parents of the bride," which means that Mr. Mitchell made a brave attempt at representing the President. Rice's orchestra furnished the music and refreshments were served.

FINISHING THE GAS MAIN.

The complicated work of laying the new gas main at the Parade corner is about completed and the filling in has been begun, so that with a return of dry weather it will be only a matter of a short time when the street will be in normal condition again. Few people probably had any idea what a tangle there was under ground of sewers, water pipes and gas pipes, until this work was undertaken, as it has been a generation since the sewer was built and the layout made. That some one has not been injured is rather surprising, since there have been several cases where the barricade about the ditch has been torn away and persons have fallen in. The removal of the mountains of earth as well as the filling of the ditch will be welcome.

JAMESTOWN.

(Regular correspondence of the News.)

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Tucker left last evening on a short visit to New York.

The Grange held a meeting last evening to initiate several candidates.

Mr. Amos T. Peckham has returned from New York.

The local fishermen again made good catches of cod yesterday.

Steamer Frank Jones landed a heavy consignment of freight this morning for Newport.

Mr. Herbert Head is confined to his home on Howland avenue by illness.

Mr. I. C. Mosher, who has been to New York, returned this morning.

Mrs. J. F. Carr and Miss Carr will close their cottage on the Shore road today, and leave for their winter home in New York.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Mr. H. C. Savage of Newton, Mass., formerly of this city, is in town.

—Lieutenant G. F. Jenks, U. S. A., has taken rooms at the Perry House.

—Miss Appleton closed her cottage today and went to New York for the winter.

—It is hoped to have the work on Bellevue avenue finished this week, before frost interrupts the work.

—John Heckscher of Canton, Ohio, Stanley P. Hall, W. W. Hazelwood, W. K. Young and G. A. Hall of Boston are registered at the Perry house.

—Mr. C. D. Pedro, letter carrier of station A, New York, here to attend the funeral of his father, Enos Pedro, returned to New York this afternoon.

—A special session of the probate court was held yesterday afternoon, when permission was granted to compromise a claim against the estate of Fanny L. Moffitt.

—Frederick H. Paine has rented, for the heirs, the Alexander estate on Connecticut avenue, near Dupont circle, Washington, to William G. Roelker of this city, for the winter season.

—Today's arrivals at the United States Hotel include L. S. Rosenfield of Boston, F. F. Eddy and G. W. Knowlton of Providence and Thomas Baker and Frank Bentley of New York.

—Yesterday Superintendent of Schools Ladd was in Chelsea, Mass., and spoke to the teachers of that city in exchange for the address which Superintendent Gregory of Chelsea recently gave the teachers of Newport.

—One of the steam rollers has gone to the outer "swamp" district of Van Zandt avenue, to try to put some of the streets in that district which were washed by the big rains in condition for the winter. The highway department has done a great deal of work in the past few weeks in restoring the washed streets in various parts to the city to something like their original condition.

—The managers of the Opera House have booked the comedy drama, "A Southern Vendetta," for matinee and evening performances Thanksgiving day. Jessie Mae Hall, a well-known actress, singer and impersonator of children, will have the leading part and during the play will sing "My Old Rag Doll," "The Buzz Saw and the Bee," "I Wish I'd Been Born a Boy" and "My Sea Side Girl."

—The first entertainment of the winter season was held by the Newport Yacht Club last night in the clubhouse and took the form of a reception to Commodore Allen and the other officers. There was a large attendance of members and friends and a pleasant evening was presented. Cunningham's orchestra furnished the general music and many others supplied solos. After the program a German supper was served.

TRIBUTES BY PROMINENT MEN.

Body of James Wilson Re-Interred in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.—In the presence of a distinguished company, which included a member of President Roosevelt's cabinet, justices of the United States Supreme Court, the governor of Pennsylvania and other citizens, the body of James Wilson, one of the great figures in the American Revolution, which lay in a North Carolina grave for 98 years, was today placed by the side of that of his wife in the burial ground of historic Christ church. The ceremonies attending the re-interment were conducted according to the rites of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The body was disinterred from its grave at Edenton, N. C., Tuesday, and was conveyed to this city on steamboat Dubuque, which arrived today before noon. Prior to the services at Christ church the body lay in state in the Declaration room in Independence hall, where thousands of persons filed past the bier. The body was escorted from Independence hall to Christ church by a troop of Philadelphia cavalry and several justices of the United States Supreme Court, of which Tribunal Wilson was one of the first members, acted as honorary pall bearers. On the way to the church the procession passed the grave of Benjamin Franklin, where it halted and stood in silence for a moment.

The exercises at the church were conducted by Rt. Rev. Alex Mackay-Smith, bishop coadjutor of the diocese of Pennsylvania, assisted by Rev. R. Heber Barnes, rector of Christ church. Following the services for the dead tributes were delivered by Samuel Dickson, chancellor of the Law Association of Philadelphia, for the bar of Pennsylvania; Governor Pennypacker, for the people of Pennsylvania; Dean William Draper Lewis, for the University of Pennsylvania; Judge Alton B. Parker, for the American bar; Andrew Carnegie, as lord rector of St. Andrew's University, for Scotch Americans. Wilson having been a native of Scotland; Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, for American literature; Justice White, for the Supreme Court of the United States; Attorney General Moody, for the President, the tribute of the American people, and Attorney General Hampton L. Carson of Pennsylvania, who delivered the oration.

The committal services took place in the church yard, which was followed by the unveiling of a tablet to the memory of Wilson and his wife.

STEAM BARGE SINKS.

One Boatload of Crew Lands, the Other is Swamped.

TORONTO, Ontario, Nov. 22.—Early this morning steam barge Resolution, from Erie, Pa., to Toronto, sprang a leak in the heavy seas just outside the harbor here and sank. The crew, under the command of Captain Sullivan, put off in two boats. One containing five people reached the shore safely, while the second was swamped, her six occupants being drowned. They were: John Harrison, Thomas Toppin, Dave White, Harry Gregory, John Burns, — Neilson.

FORMAL TREATIES NOT NEEDED.

Reports of Naval Convention Between England and France Untrue.

PARIS, Nov. 22.—The Associated Press is enabled to state that the reports of a naval convention between France and Great Britain are as untrue as the recent reports of a military convention between them. Nevertheless, it is true that the relations between France and Great Britain reached a stage during the past year where formal conventions were not deemed to be necessary.

TO OFFER NEW PROPOSITION.

Settlement of Strike at Mills in Adams, Mass., Expected.

ADAMS, Mass., Nov. 22.—Coupled with the announcement today that 60 additional weavers employed by the Renfrew Manufacturing Company in mill No. 5 had struck in sympathy with the 250 weavers already out, was the statement that a settlement of the entire difficulty is looked for, inasmuch as the company intends to offer a new proposition to the strikers. The new suggestion for a settlement of the difficulty, which was made by General Manager J. N. Sanderson, will be made tomorrow morning at a mass meeting of the strikers at Caledonian hall. Some of the strikers left town today to work in Chicopee.

PEASANTS FIGHT OFF TROOPS.

Officials Sent to Take Church Inventory Resisted.

PLOUGHUERNEAU, France, Nov. 22.—Two thousand Catholic peasants gathered around the church here today, fought off the troops sent to protect the officials engaged in taking the church inventory. The soldiers charged several times, but finally were compelled to retire, whereupon the authorities postponed their attempts to take the inventory and will await reinforcements. This afternoon the entire population was massed before the church.

SELL DAUGHTERS AS SLAVES.

Peasants of Kazan Driven to Desperation by Famine.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 22.—Reports from the famine districts of Russia show that the peasantry of Kazan have been driven to desperation and are selling their daughters into slavery to the Mohammedans of the Caucasus.

German Navy to Use Turbine Engines.

BERLIN, Nov. 22.—Vice Admiral Von Eickstedt, director of the construction bureau of the Navy Department, announced today at a meeting of the technical shipbuilding society that the German navy intended to use turbine engines in the future. Emperor William was present during the discussion on the subject.

Milk Dealer Robbed and Beaten.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 22.—Charles B. Olney, a milk dealer of Centerdale, has reported to the police that he was beaten with a black jack, shot in the left hand and robbed of $106 and a gold watch today in his back yard. The man escaped.

Foot of Snow in Marquette, Mich.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Nov. 22.—A severe storm raged all yesterday and continued last night with unabated vigor. Trains are hours late and traction service is demoralized. A foot of snow has fallen.

Criminal Code Prepared.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The joint committee of Congress, which was appointed a number of years ago to prepare a codification of all the statutes of the United States, has made such progress with its work that the chief part has been passed and practically agreed on in the form in which it is to be reported to both houses.

PANIC AMONG THE PASSENGERS.

rights has not been ascertained. Four of the crew of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse are reported to have been killed and 12 are said to have been injured, but the exact numbers of the killed and wounded on that vessel have not been reported.

The damage to the Orinoco was confined to her bows. Both vessels remain in the roadstead here.

When the collision occurred the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse was steaming at the rate of 17 knots an hour, leaving Cherbourg after having touched there on her voyage out. The Orinoco was bound for this port when the accident happened. The commander of the Orinoco asserts that he signalled that he was going to starboard of the North German Lloyd vessel, but that the latter held her course across the Orinoco's bows, and only went to port of the Orinoco, when it was too late. The engines of the Orinoco, it is added, were reversed so soon as it appeared likely that an accident would occur, but she crashed into the starboard bow of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, making a breach 12 feet wide. The stem of the Orinoco above the water line was carried away as the vessels cleared after the collision. The shock threw all the passengers on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse off their feet, and the grinding of the Orinoco's bow into the steerage of the German vessel instantly killed four persons.

The captain of the Orinoco ordered the latter's boats to be cleared away, but the panic on board of her was general. Some of the crew jumped into and launched two of her boats, and several frenzied women attempted to get into them as they were being lowered over the side. One boat was swamped when she struck the water.

As soon as the accident occurred, a number of small boats from Cherbourg went to the scene of the collision, and succeeded in rescuing some of the sailors and passengers who were struggling in the water, but five of the crew of the Orinoco are believed to have been drowned.

Some of the bodies of the persons drowned were recovered during the day.

The damage to the Kaiser Wilhelm is estimated here at $200,000.

Foggy weather prevailed at the time of the collision.

It is stated that as the injuries to the Kaiser Wilhelm will make it impossible for her to proceed, as the result of her collision with the Orinoco yesterday, the passengers will be transferred to American liner St. Paul and French line steamer La Lorraine, leaving respectively Southampton and Cherbourg and Havre November 24.

STRUCK BY SCHOONER.

Great Hole Torn in Side of North German Lloyd Steamer.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A great hole was torn in the side of the North German Lloyd steamer Main, in a collision with four-masted schooner May V. Neville, in the ship channel in the lower bay today. One man on the Main was slightly injured, but no lives were lost.

The Main was coming up the channel on her way from Bremen when she met Steamers Amerika and La Savoie going down the channel in company with schooner Neville. While manoeuvering to clear the out-going steamers the Main got in the course of the Neville, which was bowling along under full sail, and the long jibboom and bowsprit of the schooner struck the big steamer amidship with terrific force, tearing a hole 40 feet in diameter through her steel plates on a level with the Main deck.

Both ships reeled under the shock, and the schooner's bowsprit and a portion of her stem were torn off.

The schooner was taken in tow by a tug and brought up to the harbor. The Main proceeded under her own steam to her dock.

REGARDING FISHERMEN.

United States Makes Representations to Great Britain.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The United States government has made friendly representations to the government of Great Britain regarding the action of the Newfoundland officials against colonial fishermen enlisting on board American vessels. The American representations are under consideration at the foreign office.

In the House of Commons today Foreign Secretary Grey said he was not prepared at present, with the information available, to say whether or not Newfoundland's action was a technical breach of the modus vivendi on the fishery question, but, he added, its practical working had not been interfered with.

MAY SOLVE CHURCH PROBLEM.

Pope's Approval of Diocesan Association Formed by Cardinal Lecot.

PARIS, Nov. 22.—The Pope's approval of the diocesan association formed by Cardinal Lecot, Archbishop of Bordeaux, according to the Matin, arrived yesterday. It is added that if the Pope pronounced it to be in accordance with the canons of the church it furnishes a possible solution of the association question under the church and state separation law, as Minister of Worship Briand has already accepted the Lecot scheme as legal.

Condition of Wounded General Hopeless.

TIFLIS Trans-Caucasia, Nov. 22.—General Golochtkapoff, ex-governor of Yelisabetpol, who was mortally wounded here yesterday by an unknown man, who escaped, is still alive, but his condition is hopeless.

ROOSEVELT HOMEWARD BOUND.

Reception by Governor and Mrs. Winthrop Great Social Function.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Nov. 22.—President Roosevelt and his party left San Juan by special train this morning for Arecibo, 10 miles by rail west of this city, where they will enter automobiles and drive to Ponce and embark for home on board the Louisiana.

Governor Beekman Winthrop and his wife accompanied the President and will bid him farewell at Ponce. The car in which the Presidential party traveled was constructed of native wood especially for the Infanta Eulalie, when she visited Porto Rico in 1898.

Governor and Mrs. Winthrop's reception last night in honor of President Roosevelt and his wife was the greatest social function in the history of Porto Rico. The executive mansion was not large enough to accommodate the guests present.

ONLY TWO SUMS WENT ASTRAY.

Statement as to San Francisco Relief Fund.

Kept Under System That Guaranteed Correctness.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—Owing to the fact that wide publicity has been given to charges that a million dollars of the relief fund contributed to San Francisco has been diverted or stolen, and owing to the further fact that those who have sent money to San Francisco are entitled to a correct statement of conditions, the California promotion committee has sent out the following statement:

More than $9,000,000 contributed to San Francisco came in small sums, ranging from ten cents up to thousands of dollars. These sums came by mail and express, in all forms, from postage stamps and currency to money orders and bank drafts. Of the entire amount sent, only two sums went astray: one a package of currency containing $1,035.50, from Searchlight, sent through the Bank and Trust Company of Los Angeles, by express, and the other package of $200, sent by mail from Baltimore.

The finance committee of the citizens' relief committee of 40, afterwards incorporated as the committee on relief and Red Cross funds, consisting of 21 prominent men of San Francisco, received all funds, and the books of this committee were examined by General Bates, a representative of the National Red Cross Society, sent from Washington for that purpose, who declared them kept under a system that guaranteed their correctness.

The Massachusetts association for the relief of California sent a committee to San Francisco to investigate the methods of relief work. On its return to Boston, it made a report, going into detail and covering every point in the work of relief in San Francisco. The report of this committee resulted in the immediate forwarding of $250,000 to San Francisco.

James D. Hague, of the New York chamber of commerce committee for the relief of San Francisco, spent several weeks in San Francisco investigating conditions. After his report was made to the New York body, the funds, amounting to $500,000 held by the New York committee, were ordered to be turned over to the San Francisco relief committee.

PRISONERS OF COMPANY C.

Six Negro Soldiers Dishonorably Discharged at San Antonio.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Nov. 22.—Six negro soldiers, prisoners of Company C, Twenty-fifth infantry, will be discharged without honor today, in accordance with orders received at Fort Sam Houston, from the War Department, directing their dismissal. The prisoners have been confined in the guard house at the post since the Brownsville trouble.

LAKES STOCKED WITH FISH.

Government Working to Preserve Angling in Maine Waters.

BUCKSPORT, Me., Nov. 22.—For the purpose of maintaining the angling prestige of the Maine lakes, the United States fish hatchery at Craig [illegible] ing, 5,000 from fry were distributed in one of the most popular regions. The set was regarded as very successful, only 50 fish of the entire lot being lost. The government has six special fish cars in actual use, and their work has done much to preserve angling in the state. The work will be carried on steadily through December.

MILLIONS OF LOGS WINTERED.

Bright Outlook for the Lumber Market Next Year.

BANGOR, Me., Nov. 21.—A bright outlook for the lumber market next spring is indicated by the conditions at the close of the Bangor log boom this week. A total of 30,300,000 feet of logs has been rafted here this year, and while a large part of this has gone to the sawmills, 15,000,000 feet has been carried over for the supply of the mills in the early spring of 1907. Up the river at the Penobscot boom and its vicinity about 30,000,000 feet of logs will be wintered, so as to supply the mills next spring before the arrival of the first drives. This is the largest stock carried over in many years.

WAGED BY CANADIAN OFFICERS.

Campaign Against Undersirable Immigration in Nova Scotia.

SYDNEY, Nova Scotia, Nov. 22.—A vigorous campaign against undesirable immigration is being waged here by the Canadian immigration officials. In England and Scotland agents have been stationed at strategic points to watch Canadian bound-home steamers, and at this port a rigid examination is being made of the new-comers. Recently the alleged attempt of one foreign agent to land immigants who were thought to be undesirable was frustrated and the people turned back. F. W. Aamand, Canadian immigration agent at Halifax, has been in this city for several days, looking into alleged attempts to evade the immigration laws. Immigration for the past year has been unusually heavy, owing to the effort of the Dominion government to develop its great Northwest. The opportunities afforded by the opening up of the west have been extensively advertised in Great Britain.

FRENCH PREMIER A PRACTICAL JOKER.

France's new premier, Dr. Clemenceau, has a keen sense of humor and, moreover, is an inveterate practical joker. The latter peculiarity, indeed, has stood in the way of his political success.

Among his colleagues in the Chamber of Deputies was a Dr. Michon, a fellow physician, an odd little man, extremely pompous and, though scrupulously honest, nevertheless determined to avail himself to the utmost of his prerogatives as a member of the legislature. Thus, the deputies have at their disposal a buffet, where all sorts of delicacies can be obtained, and Dr. Michon was in the habit of not merely consuming a hearty meal there, but likewise of filling his capacious pocket with provisions to be carried home. In some way or another Clemenceau found out that Dr. Michon's coat was so constructed as to have one big pocket with several entrances, and accordingly he for two or three days made it a point to get near Dr. Michon when the latter was stowing away his cargo of provisions, as usual, and as fast as the little man inserted sandwiches, etc., by one entrance to the pocket, Clemenceau would deftly remove them through one of the other apertures in the coat.

Of course, Michon ended by becoming convinced that he was the victim of some practical joker, and eventually managed to catch Clemenceau in very act of picking his pocket of the provisions in question. Michon said little, failed to see the joke, and looked extremely sour. Not long afterward Clemenceau was a candidate for the presidency of the Chamber. He was defeated by one single vote, and that vote was cast by Dr. Michon, who thus got even. The failure of Clemenceau to obtain the Speakership on that occasion may be said to have retarded by several years his attainment of the premiership and to have destroyed his chances for the presidency.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Miss Alice Potter has gone to New York to visit relatives.

—Mrs. A. L. Leavitt has returned from an extended visit to Boston.

—Messrs. Charles S. Plummer and Everett Greason are in New York.

—Colonel Thomas Pierce of Wickford has been spending a few days here.

—Mrs. Woodbury Kane has returned to her cottage on Bellevue avenue.

—Mrs. Garrison and family are at one of the Muenchinger-King cottages for the winter.

—Newport Council, Knights of Columbus, is to work the third degree at its meeting next Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Peter D. Martin and Mrs. Harry Symes Lehr sailed today on the Savoie for Europe.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hunter and Miss Hunter, after leaving Pomfret, Conn., went to Boston for a few days.

—Mrs. De Grasse Fowler and family of Baltimore have leased the Marin cottage on Kay street for the winter season.

—Chief Engineer Kirwin of the fire department has received from Miss M. C. Cushman a check for $20 for the Firemen's Relief Association.

—Two young girls, one 16 and the other 18 years of age, who have been misbehaving were today sent to the Oaklawn school during their minority.

—Miss Mary Lindsay of the Hazard Memorial School left last evening for New York and was presented before her departure with a ring by her classmates, as a farewell token.

—Mr. Thomas M. Seabury, Jr., returned last evening from a visit to New York and Plainfield, N. J. Mrs. Seabury is guest in New York of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford T. Gladding.

—It is said at Long wharf that the report that nothing but the Torpedo Station was hit by the man who fired at sea gulls Tuesday was incorrect, as it is stated that two gulls were wounded and that there are fully 20 witnesses to prove this.

—A sad sight was witnessed at the police station this morning, when a sobbing girl, in her teens begged the judge to be lenient with her mother, who had been arrested for drunkenness. The woman returned from the state farm last Saturday. The plea was heeded and the mother was given a ten days' sentence at the Newport jail.

—The work of repairing the damage done by fire at Mr. T. M. Davis's during the big tempest is being pushed along. The old stable is being re-built as a laundry and quarters for the employes, while a new and larger stable is being built. Both are being constructed of re-inforced concrete and it is the purpose of Mr. Davis to make them thoroughly fireproof.

—The Primer Makers of the Torpedo Station held their annual social and dance at the new Father Mathew hall Wednesday night and as usual there was a large attendance of young folks, who knew that a good time was due. The Harry R. Howard orchestra furnished music and Samuel Hilton acted as floor manager, with the assistance of G. Radford and W. J. Beattie.

—Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Corinne Violett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Atwood Violett, now of New York and formerly of New Orleans, to W. Dennison Hatch, Jr. The latter is a widower, his wife having died within a year after his marriage. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Dennison Hatch, who several summers ago occupied the Gilbert cottage on Bellevue avenue.

—While Fall River line steamer Priscilla was moving down the East river today, after her trip through the sound from this city, her steering gear became disabled. Tugs were sent to her assistance, and she was towed to her dock. While anchored in a dense fog in the East river a scow towed by a tug struck the Priscilla's stern and damaged the steering gear. The passengers on the Priscilla were alarmed by the crash and rushed on deck, but were quickly quieted.

HAVE YOU CATARRH?

Breathe Hyomei and Get Relief and Cure. Sold Under Guarantee.

If you have catarrh, with offensive breath, burning pains in the throat, coughing, raising of mucous, difficulty in breathing, sneezing, huskiness, discharge from the nose, tickling and dropping at the back of the throat, especially at night, coughing spasms, etc., begin the use of Hyomei at once.

Its healing medication will give relief in a few days and its continued use will completely drive all catarrhal germs from the system.

Hyomei contains Nature's healing oils and balsams, the germ-killing properties of the pine-forests, and goes with the air you breathe to the most remote cells of the respiratory organs, searching out and killing all catarrhal germs and soothing and healing any irritation there may be in the mucous membrane. It is easy and pleasant to use Hyomei, pleasanter than most of the stomach dosing, as its healing air is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler, which can be carried in the purse or vestpocket, and carries medication to just the spot where relief is needed.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, extra bottles, if needed, 50 cents, and Wright & Hay give their personal guarantee with every package that money will be refunded unless the treatment cures. This shows their faith in the power of Hyomei to cure catarrh.

REAR ADMIRALS TO RETIRE.

One This Year and Twelve in 1907 Will Largely Deplete This Grade.

There is to be one more retirement of a rear admiral of the navy before the end of the year, Rear Admiral Joseph B. Coghlan retiring December 9, when he will have reached the statutory age of 62 years. As Admiral Coghlan is an additional number in the grade, having been advanced for his services in the Spanish-American war, there will be no promotion of officers of lower rank on his retirement.

In 1907 there will be 12 retirements of naval officers of high rank for age, as follows: Rear Admiral Charles D. Sigsbee, January 16; Rear Admiral William W. Mead, February 8; Rear Admiral Joseph E. Craig, February 24; Rear Admiral George C. Reeter, July 6; Rear Admiral Willard H. Brownson, July 8; Rear Admiral James H. Sands, July 12; Rear Admiral Charles H. Davis, August 28; Rear Admiral Charles H. Stockton, October 13; Rear Admiral Seth M. Ackley, October 13; Rear Admiral Harry W. Lyon, November 8; Rear Admiral Asa Walker, November 13; Rear Admiral Albert S. Snow, November 18.

These retirements will leave at the end of the year 11 of the present rear admirals on the active list, as follows: Rear Admirals Robley D. Evans, Caspar F. Goodrich, Charles M. Thomas, James H. Dayton, Charles S. Sperry, William T. Burwell, Robert M. Berry, Samuel W. Very, William T. Swinburne, Joseph N. Hemphill and William H. Emory.

The retirements will occasion the promotion of the following captains: George A. Bicknell, Seth M. Ackley, who will be retired during the year as a rear admiral; Benjamin F. Tilley, John P. Merrell, Eugene H. C. Leutze, Uriel Sebree, Albert R. Condon, Albert Ross, Richardson Clover and James M. Miller.

A VALUABLE RATS' NEST.

Workmen, who were tearing down a partition between two rooms in the farmhouse of Jacob Zimmerer, in Bloomfield, N. J., were astonished to find a rat's nest lined with greenbacks. The bills were in denominations of from $1 to $20, and all were badly mutilated. The total was over $200.

Mrs. Zimmerer said the money had been placed in an old chest in a closet, and was unable to understand how the rats had found it. Examination of the chest showed that the rodents had gnawed a hole in the bottom and purloined every bill.

The mutilated money will be sent to the Sub-Treasury to be redeemed. The two rats which occupied the valuable nest showed signs of fight when disturbed.

BLUE RIBBONS FOR VANDERBILT HORSES.

At the New York horse show yesterday Mr. Alfred G. Vanderbilt's horses won two first, two second and two third prizes, and Mr. R. C. Vanderbilt won one third and one fourth prize. A. G. Vanderbilt's blue ribbons were won by Sweet Marie and The Major in the class for pairs suitable for heavy vehicles, and by The Dude, Sweet Marie, Polly Prim and The Major in the class for four-in-hands, the horses to exceed 16 hands in height. The second prizes were won by Alert in the class for horses, not exceeding 15.2 hands, shown before a runabout, and by Rustling Silk and Primrose in the class for tandems, and the third prizes were won by Full Dress and Gibson Boy in the class in which Sweet Marie and The Major won, and by Primrose, Full Dress, Gibson Boy and Rustling Silk in the class for four-in-hands.

R. C. Vanderbilt won his third prize with Tiger Lillie in the class for hackney stallions, four years and over, and in the class for pairs driven by women to a phaeton Phoebe Watten and Marie Tempest were highly commended, being beaten by Sandoz and Sultan, Donner and Blitzen and Norina and Chatterbox.

CUBANS WANT A PROTECTORATE

The sentiment in Cuban industrial and financial circles in favor of the establishment of a strong American protectorate over the island is crystallizing. There are two independent movements for this purpose, the instigators of which are gathering signatures to petitions to President Roosevelt opposing the idea of annexation, pointing out the inability of the Cubans to direct their own affairs unaided, and declaring that only by a protectorate can Cuba be preserved for the Cubans. It is reported that a considerable number of signatures have been secured, but they are being kept secret pending the development of the movement.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that those countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

If you like Coffee but dare not drink it, try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. It is true that real Coffee does disturb the Stomach, Heart and Kidneys. But Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee has not a grain of true coffee in it. Being made from parched grains, malt, etc., it forms a wholesome food-like drink, yet having the true flavor of Old Java and Mocha Coffee. "Made in a minute." Call at our store for a free sample. A Stylish Shoe

Without durability, or a durable shoe without style, does not suit the people today. To be an assured success from a retailer's point of view, a shoe must possess all the good qualities to a marked degree. The distinguishing characteristics of our $3.00, $3.50 special and $4.00 bench-made, are all the good qualities. As a result

THEY ARE A SUCCESS.

The new Pure Food and Drug Law will mark it on the label of every Cough Cure containing Opium, Chloroform, or any other stupifying or poisonous drug. But it passes Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure as made for 27 years, entirely free. Dr. Shoop all along has bitterly opposed the use of all opiates or narcotics. Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is absolutely safe even for the youngest babe—and it cures, it does not simply suppress. Get a safe and reliable Cough Cure, by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's. Let the law be your protection. We cheerfully recommend and sell it. John M. Callahan.

POST OFFICE ROBBERIES.

Recent Burglaries Seem to be the Work of Three Safe-Crackers.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 22.—The break in the post office at Natick today is another chapter in the history of a long series of post office robberies which have occurred during the past few months in this state, lower Massachusetts and eastern Connecticut. It seems to be the opinion that the robberies are the work of an organized gang of three safe-crackers.

First they began in Massachusetts, then they jumped into this state and a few months later were heard of on the Connecticut border. Their booty is evidently kept in an abode in the woods.

The first of the series of breaks began early in the summer and for a while operations were conducted wholly in Massachusetts, the men working once or twice into Connecticut. On the night of September 31 they came over into Rhode Island and entered the post office and general store at Rockland in the town of Scituate, which borders the Connecticut line. Here they blew open the safe and got away with several hundred dollars. They went back to Massachusetts for a time, but on the night of November 8 they again visited this state. After stealing a horse and team from the village of Chepachet they went to the Mapleville post office, where they secured over $200 in stamps and money, after cracking the safe.

Encouraged by the success of their previous depredations, today found them down in the Pawtuxet valley where they got $600 in stamps and money from the Natick post office.

Only one man was seen at Mapleville, but it is still the belief that he could have accomplished the work done there. At Rockland three men were seen on a late electric car, and today a glimpse of what is supposed to be the same three was caught just as they were running away with their booty.

STEAL MONEY AND STAMPS.

Three Men Rob the Safe in Natick, R. I., Postoffice.

NATICK, Nov. 22.—Three men entered the postoffice here early today, and after robbing the safe, which contained about $600 worth of money and stamps, made good their escape into the dense woods. Three suspicious men were seen passing the Natick mills by the night watchman. Shortly afterwards the neighborhood was aroused by two distinct explosions when the men blew open the safe. Superintendent McFadden of the Natick mills, who lives opposite the postoffice, looked out of his window and saw three men running for the woods in the rear of the office.

INCENDIARY FIRES.

Cause Intense Excitement in New York, but Financial Loss Small.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Six incendiary fires within an area of half a dozen city blocks, caused intense excitement in the vicinity of Twenty-fourth street and Eighth avenue today. One woman was so severely injured that she may die, hundreds of lives were endangered and thousands fled to the streets in fear. There were many thrilling rescues by police and firemen, and several persons had remarkable escapes from death on flame-swept fire scapes. The financial loss was comparatively small.

TO COST $250,000.

Plans Under Consideration for Largest Paper Mill in the World.

HOLYOKE, Mass., Nov. 22.—Plans are being considered, it is understood, for the erection within a year of the largest paper mill in the world. The site for the structure has not been definitely announced, but upon the expiration of the lease of their present mill the Powers Paper Company, of which Lewis J. Powers of Springfield is the head, will build an enlarged plant at an estimated cost of $250,000. The proposed plan for the building calls for a four story structure 200 by 300 feet, with an aggregate floor space of 250,000 square feet. The firm at present employs 400 men, but Mr. Powers said recently that the force would be increased by an additional 100 operatives.

WAS A MAN OF WEALTH.

Death of Eccentric Character in New Bedford, Who Posed as Miser.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 22.—An eccentric character known in this city as "William J. Smith," but whose death has revealed the fact that he was a man of wealth and was the only son of George Yeaton Sawyer, at one time a justice of the supreme court of New Hampshire, died in this city Tuesday, as the result of burns received while taking a vapor bath. A most romantic story is told by his sister, Mrs. E. B. Hubbard of Tiffin, Ohio, to whom alone was the secret of her brother's identity known. The man was a graduate of Yale College, and a brigade officer in the Union army during the Civil war, but since that time he has been a wanderer of his own choice in various countries. It has been revealed that the man, who posed here as a miser, is under his own name an official in banking institutions in New York and Baltimore, and is the owner of property in Nashua, N. H., the place of his birth, and of a plantation in Georgia, where for several years he lived unknown to any members of his family. His body will be taken to Nashua for interment.

Smith's correct name was George Yeaton Sawyer, Jr., but it has been many years since he has been known by that name.

NURSE GIRL KIDNAPS CHILD.

Valuable Rings and $460 in Money Also Missing.

FISHKILL, N. Y., Nov. 22.—The New York police have been asked by Charles H. Langdon, a New York broker, to search for Lottie Jackson, a colored nurse girl, who is alleged to have kidnapped Mr. Langdon's only daughter, a little child. The nurse girl, with the child, left Fishkill at 7 p. m. yesterday and both were traced to New York.

Lottie Jackson, who is about 17 years of age, was employed in Mr. Langdon's home in this village. She is said to have been greatly attached to the child whom she is charged with kidnapping. Several valuable rings belonging to Mrs. Langdon and $460 in money is also missing from the Langdon home, and the nurse is suspected to have taken them.

ROOSEVELT PASSES CAPE RACE.

Peary Expects to Reach Sydney, Nova Scotia, Friday.

SYDNEY, Nova Scotia, Nov. 22.—A despatch has been received here from Commander Peary, announcing that he expects to reach Sydney tomorrow morning.

A Marconi wireless report from Cape Race, Newfoundland, says that steamer Roosevelt passed that point at 8 a. m., today, on her way to Port Aux Basque for coal.

A CANADIAN WESTMINSTER.

National Mortuary Chapel to be Constructed in Fortress of Louisburg.

LOUISBURG, Cape Breton, Nov. 22.—A national mortuary chapel, in which shall be placed the remains of General Wolfe, General Amherst and other heroes in Canadian history, is the project of Captain D. J. Kennelly in connection with the restoration of the ancient fortress of Louisburg. Captain Kennelly, who originated the idea of restoring the fortifications as a memorial building, intends to have constructed within its walls a number of mortuary chambers. He is now in communication with descendants of many Canadian military and naval heroes, with a view to obtaining their consent to the removal of the remains of their famous ancestors to this historic structure. An especial effort will be put forth to have this made the last resting place of those who took a leading part in the battles during the various sieges of Louisburg, in the days when France and Great Britain were struggling for supremacy in North America. If the plan succeeds Captain Kennelly will endeavor to have the chapel recognized as a sort of Canadian Westminster Abbey, in which shall be placed from time to time the bodies of Canada's great patriots, statesmen and men who have achieved eminence in other ways.

FOUR MEN DROWNED.

Caught in Storm on Cribwork of Breakwater on Lake Michigan.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 22.—Four men who were caught by last night's storm on the cribwork of the new breakwater at the entrance to Holland harbor, on Lake Michigan, were washed away by the waves and drowned.

The dead are: Tom Bennett, contractor for the cribwork; George Lachaine, Alvid Nelson, Martin Woodward.

The four men went out to the cribwork in a launch and a scow in the afternoon, shortly before the storm broke. The scow was torn loose. The men could not gain the shore because of the immense sea. A life saving crew attempted to aid them, but the waves were so high that no boat could live. When night closed the men were still clinging desperately to the cribwork. At daybreak today they were gone.

Why Patronize Home Industry?

I challenge all who handle factory-made goods to compete with mine of home make. In the business since 1872, have made chocolates from the bean up and so know what I am talking about. I know that even the manufacturers in this country catering to the 400 colored their chocolate black for style, but I didn't, and kept the natural color to show the quality of absolutely pure goods. The dark chocolate covers a good many bad things, such as worm-eaten and mouldy beans or no cocoa beans at all. They are roasted black to get rid of bad flavor. The salesmen of factories will tell the dealer that they can manufacture cheaper than I because they manufacture by machine. I agree, but only to a certain extent. They have more expense than a small manufacturer selling in his own town; for instance, building, machinery, packers, bookkeepers, salesmen, advertising, boxing and trucking. So they are compelled to make impure goods to compete with the small manufacturer. He in his native town would not risk his reputation to make such impure candy, that injures children as well as grown persons. Candy should be inspected by order of the Board of Health, and now, for the pure food law goes into effect in January and all sorts of goods will be unloaded for Christmas by the manufacturers.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22, Wall Street—The stock market opened strong, with Amalgamated Copper at 113½ and 113¾; American Smelting 155, Anaconda 280¾, Atchison 103, Baltimore & Ohio 119⅞, Brooklyn Transit 81½, Canadian 182¼, Colorado Fuel and Iron 55½, Erie 45⅞; Great Northern preferred 330½, Louisville 148½, Missouri Pacific 94⅞, New York Central 131½, Norfolk & Western 95¾, Northern Pacific 227¼, Pennsylvania 140½, Reading 139¾, Rock Island 32, Southern Railway 34¾, St. Paul 157, Southern Pacific 95¼, Union Pacific 189½ and 185¾, United States Steel 47⅞, United States Steel preferred 105⅞.

10—Prices rose with some vigor in the opening transactions in stocks. A decline of 1 in Great Northern preferred, caused by [illegible] on the announcement of the plan for sharing in the benefits in the ore lands contract, was the only notable exception. Gains reached as much as a point in Union Pacific, St. Paul, Brooklyn Transit, Pacific Mail and Colorado Fuel, and a large fraction in Canadian Pacific, Delaware & Hudson, and National Railroad of Mexico preferred. Reading and Virginia rose 1½.

11—Profits were taken in the opening rise, but the movement did not reach extensive proportions outside of St. Paul, which gave way to below yesterday's final figure. Spectacular bidding for some of the coalers and specialties caused an up-turn in the general list. Virginia Iron bounded up 13½, Central of New Jersey 6½, Delaware & Hudson 5¼ and some other stocks 1 to 2.

Noon—Money on call firm at 7 per cent; prime mercantile paper 6 @ 6½ per cent. The feature of the trading was the violent fluctuations in industrial stocks, which are seldom active. Feverish fluctuations in St. Paul over a range of more than a point unsettled the general list. Union Pacific's two-point rise helped the tone. Bonds were firm.

NEW VOTING PLACES.

In Order to Accommodate More Booths Fourth and Fifth Ward Rooms Changed.

The Board of Aldermen met Wednesday evening to make the final canvass of the voting lists for the city election. There were but few changes to make, and they were quickly made. The supervisors who served at the recent state election were appointed to serve at the city election.

It was voted to change the location of the polling places in the Fourth and Fifth wards, so that the voters may be better accommodated at the coming election and incidentally the fire department will not be handicapped by having two pieces of apparatus out of the usual places during the many hours which the voting and counting is expected to occupy. It was found necessary to place more marking booths in each of the wards, as at the coming election it is expected that it will take the voters some little time to mark their ballots, and this calls for more booths to accommodate the rush. These booths will be placed in the warehouses at engine houses 2, 4 and 1, as there is room at each to do this.

Instead of sending Truck 2 and Combination 2 out to seek other shelter while the Fourth and Fifth wards vote it was decided to hire the vacant store in the Father Mathew building, 304 Thames street, for the Fourth ward. This is close to the old voting place on Young street and affords a the room needed for the booths. For the Fifth ward the old Grace Chapel building, on Wellington avenue, now owned by the Ilberdians, will be hired. This also is close to the old polling place at the former engine house No. 6, and is amply large for the voters.

Thirteen grand and five petit jurors were drawn for the December session of the superior court, which meets December 3, the petit jurors being called for the following day. The jurors drawn are as follows:

Grand—Allen L. Fricke, Charles E. Peckham, Patrick F. Dixon, Arthur Burroughs, Henry Williams, Frank W. Poole, Elbert H. Smith, Benjamin Odell Weaver, Patrick H. Horgan, Emilio Guerrieri, Peter Hussey, Holmes Jouvet, Frederick H. Fobes.

Petit—Wilson P. Adams, James Graham, Oliver H. Burnham, Patrick J. Ryan, William Gash.

DEATH OF ALEXIS M. SLOCUM.

Mr. Alexis M. Slocum, a former resident of Newport, died at his home in Providence yesterday. He had been in poor health for some time, having also expected to come to Newport in September. While he lived in Newport, he was prominent in the work of the Thames Street Methodist Episcopal church, of which he was one of the original members. Mr. Slocum was engaged in the trail of carpentering for several years ago to Wickford, and later to Providence, where he conducted was married. His wife, a daughter of the late Nathan and Hannah (Sherman) Cory of this city, died about two years ago.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH ROLL-CALL.

The first annual roll-call since the consolidation of the Second and Central Baptist churches was held at the Second Church last evening and was attended by a goodly number, many of whom were not members. There were 156 who responded to their names and messages were received from 40 more, while more than 100 were heard from.

The pastor of the church provided special music during the evening and Rev. Frank Reed, D. D., of Pawtucket, a former pastor of the Second Baptist Church delivered a historical address which was very interesting.

[illegible] a member present, and those who failed to meet were slighted by reason of not giving him the opportunity.

A CHURCH WEDDING.

Marriage of Miss Juliet Weaver to Mr. James W. Thompson at the First Presbyterian.

The marriage of Miss Juliet Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Weaver, to Mr. James W. Thompson, took place last evening at the First Presbyterian Church in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Before the ceremony the organist of the church, Mr. H. Ward Thompson, rendered the following program: "Bridal Chorus," from suite, Samuel P. Warren; "Spring Song," Mendelssohn; "Elevation," Gullmant.

As the strains of the "Lohengrin" wedding march pealed forth from the organ the bridal party entered the church headed by the ushers, Messrs. William J. Thompson, Herbert Stanton, William J. Weaver and John J. McManus, followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Julie Weaver and Miss Mary D. Thompson, the flower girl, Miss Marion Duggan, a niece of the bride, and the bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her away. At the altar the bride was met by the groom attended by Mr. Francis W. King, who acted as best man, and Rev. Aquilla Webb, Ph. D., pastor of the church who performed the ceremony.

The bride's gown was of white Brussels net over taffeta silk, the veil being caught with a spray of lilies of the valley. Her bouquet was of bride roses and lilies of the valley arranged in shower effect. The bridesmaids wore white silk mulle, accordion plaited, with corn-colored silk girdles and carried bouquets of chrysanthemums. The flower girl wore white batiste and carried a basket of carnations. The bride gave her attendants gold band bracelets which were worn at the ceremony, and the groom gave his ushers and best man scarf pins set with pearls. Their boutonnieres were of gardenias.

The wedding party left the church as the organist played the Mendelssohn wedding march and proceeded to the home of the bride's parents on Broadway, where a large number of guests followed to offer their congratulations and where the wedding gifts were displayed. Among the gifts were a parlor table and two chairs from the Walter Lowrie Club, of which the groom is a prominent member; a chest of silver from his fellow employes in the Post Office and a mahogany Morris chair from the Newport Artillery, of which the groom is also a member.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on the evening boat for their wedding trip, which will include visits to New York and Boston, and on their return will reside at 51 Third street.

WHARTON—PARSONS.

Married at St. Mark's, Islip, L. I., in the Presence of a Large Number of Relatives and Friends.

Many members of society from New York, Philadelphia and other cities gathered at high noon yesterday, at St. Mark's Church, Islip, Long Island, in attendance at the marriage of Miss Helena J. Parsons, daughter of Mr. Schuyler Livingston Parsons, and Mr. Richard Wharton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fishburn Wharton.

A special train, which arrived from Long Island City shortly before noon, brought 200 guests, and the members of the South Shore summer colony also sent their most prominent representatives.

The bride, one of the most popular and prominent members of New York's fashionable set, was given away by her father. She wore a plain princess gown of white satin, superbly trimmed with real lace that had been in the family for generations. Her only ornament was a diamond dog collar, the gift of her father. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her sister, Miss Evelyn K. Parsons, the maid of honor, wore a gown of pale blue liberty satin with large blue hat and blue plumes. She carried, instead of the conventional bouquet, a muff of real flowers, lilies of the valley and purple orchids. The best man was Mr. George Mifflin Wharton, brother of the bridegroom.

The ushers were Messrs. Bradish G. Johnson, Sidney Y. Hutchinson and Johnston Livingston, Jr. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Ralph L. Brydges, rector of St. Mark's, and Rev. Henry B. Freeman, rector of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, of Troy, a former rector of St. Mark's.

After the church ceremony the wedding party and guests repaired to White-a-Way, the Parsons country villa on St. Mark's avenue, where a reception was held.

Among the guests invited were Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, besides the well known members of the Schuyler, Livingston, Barclay, Knapps, Hollins, Duvall, Wilmerding and Cutting families.

AN ARCANUM LECTURE.

Coronet Council, Royal Arcanum, will have an open meeting Friday evening, when Deputy Grand Regent Norman H. Cheney of Providence will give a lecture on "Cold Storage," showing by stereoptican views how cold storage affects food problems, and some facts and fallacies concerning ice. Mr. Cheney has given the lecture in Providence several times, where it has proved of an interesting and instructive character. There will be in addition to the lecture music by the Algonquin Mandolin Club and refreshments. The meeting will be open not only to members but to women and to men who are not members of the order.

"HUMAN HEARTS."

It is not many years ago that an American play or actor was at a low ebb, and for that reason American managers were compelled to import their melodramatic material from the other side of the ocean. But times have changed of late, and during the past few years any play which has borne an American trademark has been accorded a hearty welcome in Europe.

One of the most successful plays which has been sent to England in recent years has been "Human Hearts," which is now meeting great success at the Kensington Theatre in London. Such demand has been made for this piece that in addition to the London company, a special company has been organized to tour the provinces. Both these companies are playing to capacity nightly. Mr. Nankeville also controls the rights for that country as well as this, and his company will present the play at the Opera House next week.

CONTEMPTUOUS OF WEALTH.

(Philadelphia Public Ledger.)

Many men write and talk in the most contemptuous tone of all wealth, and yet they are eager to have the means of life and of comfort and the insurance against suffering, sickness and want for themselves and their families as any other people. The only people who really have a contempt for money are the savages of some remote jungle, who do not happen to know anything about its purchasing power.

"THE ISLES OF GREECE,"

Lecture by Professor J. I. Manatt Before the Members and Friends of the Current Topics Club.

Before the members of the Current Topics Club and their friends yesterday afternoon, Professor J. I. Manatt, head of the Greek department of Brown University, gave an interesting stereopticon lecture on "The Isles of Greece," several of which he has visited. Despite the fact that Professor Manatt thought his lecture was to be given a week later, that he was suffering from a severe cold and that he dislikes to lecture in the dark, as is necessary when a lantern is used, the speaker showed so plainly that he is a thorough student and lover of the Greek language, country and people that the lecture was most enjoyable.

There are so many isles of Greece—55 large ones and innumerable ones—that it is impossible to consider them all, the speaker dwelling particularly on Lesbos, the home of Sappho and Alcaeus, and the cradle of lyric poetry; the Isles of Odysseus, Ceos, Delos, Crete and Samos. Professor Manatt spoke of the pleasant weeks he passed on Sappho's Isle, the Greeks there speaking in high terms of Horace Mann and "Theodore" Roosevelt, comparing one of the latter's speeches to the funeral oration of Pericles at Athens.

The development of the temple at Delos from the altar to the roof door and precinct was interestingly described. The loving cup presented by friends of Professor William Whitney Bailey when he retired from Brown University was filled with wine from Lesbos by Professor Manatt. This was a most fitting tribute to the poet-botanist, as Theophrastus, the first botanist, and Sappho, the poetess, were born in Lesbos.

At the conclusion of the scholarly lecture many of the speaker's Newport friends took the opportunity to speak to him.
